

2021 Membership FAQs

Are membership dues for 12 months?

AHOU membership is valid from January 1st – December 31st.

If I'm a vendor can I become an Affiliate member?

Vendors are not eligible to join AHOU as an Affiliate member. Affiliate membership is designed for the students who may desire to enter the underwriting industry and individuals who are fully retired and want to stay connected.

How are Company Access plans administered?

The company administrator should be the one to purchase the Company Access Plan. The administrator will receive an email with instructions on how to sign up their employees. The administrator is responsible for identifying who will receive a username (become a Company Member), conference discount, and OTR subscription.

The company administrator will also serve as the main point of contact and liaison between AHOU and the company's employees.

How is voting managed with a Company Access Plan?

Anyone who receives a username through a Company Access Plan is eligible to vote. The company is not able to vote on their employee's behalf.

Is the conference discount the same for all membership types?

Yes! Individual, Affiliate, a pre-determined number of company members receive the same conference discount. The number of conference discounts available to companies who purchase a Company Access Plan will vary based on the plan.

What options are available to a company who would like to purchase more than 150 usernames/company memberships?

A company is welcome to purchase individual memberships or an additional Company Access Plan. If an additional plan is purchased, the same individual must serve as the Administrator for both plans.

Can a company with multiple entities purchase multiple Company Access Plans?

Companies with the same name who would like to purchase separate Company Access Plans (one for each entity) are able to do so. Each plan must have a unique and distinct company name and a unique company administrator.

How can I tell which membership package is the best value for my company?

The company access plans are designed to provide access to AHOU benefits to more of your employees. For instance if you typically pay for six individual memberships and only send two people to conference, you could purchase a Plan A for $1000, save $500, and be able to offer four additional employees access to AHOU's benefits.
