

Andrea Bushnell

Chief Executive Officer
North Carolina Association

Andrea Bushnell is the Chief Executive Officer of the North Carolina Association of REALTORS®. A lawyer, Andrea has more than 20 years of experience as an association executive and as general counsel for State REALTOR® Associations. A Montana native, she earned a bachelor's degree in English from Montana State University and graduated with honors from Lewis and Clark College School of Law in Portland, Oregon.

Before launching her law career, Andrea spent six years as a full-time REALTOR® in San Diego. And it was the love and respect for what we do that was a deciding factor in her re-entry into the REALTOR® world in 1995. Andrea was the 2014 NAR Association Executives Committee Chair. During her tenure, NAR's 2014 President Steve Brown asked Andrea to chair an Organizational Alignment PAG.

Martin Green

Principal
Foresight Strategic Advisors

Drawing upon 15 years of public affairs and policy experience in Canada, the United States and internationally, Martin advises organizations on managing government risk associated with complex, publicly-sensitive business matters. Martin has served as a strategic advisor to many of Canada's largest enterprises, Fortune Global 500 companies, and non-profits involved in extractive, health care, financial services, and real estate industries, among others.

His government experience includes six years as a senior political, policy and communications advisor in the U.S. Congress. And he has worked in the Ontario Finance Minister's Office and the Opposition Leader's Office.

Ken Keelor

Chief Executive Officer
Calgary Co-operative Association Limited
