

Fairbanks Summer Arts Festival

Awaken Your Inner Artist

VOL. 2, ISSUE 4

APRIL 2021

Director's Note

Festival is less than 100 days away!

On the one hand, this fact fills me with dread. There is so much left to do and there is so much that we just do not yet know about what the world will be like this coming summer. On the other hand, it is super exciting. We here at the FSAF offices are putting together a festival that is filled with incredible guest artists, interesting workshops and engaging performances. It will be two weeks of some of the best sights, sounds and people that you will encounter for the entire year!

Registration will be pushed back as far as we can this year. We will be opening our online registration at www.fsaf.org on June 1st. This is so that we can have the most accurate information possible when you sign up for classes. It is also so that you can have a clear understanding of how group events are working in summer of 2021 and what comfort level you will have in meeting together in a small group workshop or gathering for a large performance.

What can you do to get ready for Festival this summer? You can watch some of our Guest Artist Spotlights on our Youtube channel and share them with friends who may be interested in attending. You can let the FSAF office know if you have housing or cars that are available for a visiting Guest Artist to use during the end of July. You can save the dates, July 18-August 1, as it is easy for our summer schedules to be quickly filled up.

I will see you in 100 days!

James

What's Next? Helping FSAF

2020 had it's own challenges and some of those challenges are still ahead for us. FSAF could use your help with housing for our Guest Artists this summer. UAF will not be open to us for guests this year. If you have an extra room or a space where you can house an artist, let us know. We are excited to get back to doing what we all love this summer.
