Company Overview

With over 40 years of offering skill-based sports opportunities for children, Skyhawks is best known for beginner to intermediate instruction that helps build confidence in young players preparing them for their next step in sports. We offer:

- 1. Skyhawks skill-based offerings that include 12 different sports across various camp and class formats for ages 4 to 14*
- 2. SuperTots classes that offer children ages 2 to 5 game-based development opportunities across 7 different sports*
- 3. STEM Sports, a one-of-a-kind program that blends the science of sports with traditional skill-based instruction*

Our mission is to teach life skills through sports and we operate in hundreds of communities across nearly 30 states, providing quality sports instruction to thousands of children every year.

Job Summary

A qualified candidate for the Program Coach position has some experience working with children and a background in playing and/or coaching multiple sports. We are fully open to less experienced candidates who have a passion for and desire to teach sports to children. The Program Coach leads a group of participants each day of the program under the direction of their Program Director. All candidates must successfully pass a criminal background investigation and complete various onboarding tasks and training events before taking the field and working with children. Coaches are the face of Skyhawks!
